

Group Stations

The following stations are grouped together with common prices for travel to/from any station in the group. Tickets issued to or from station groups listed below are available at any associated station in the group, subject to normal route availability. Tickets are issued to and from the named station group, except for some local journeys or travel between stations within a

Important Note - 1

Group Stations should not be confused with ‘Inter-available origins/destinations’. This is where a ticket is named to one specific station but has a special type of easement which allows it to be used to/from another station(s).

Important Note - 2

Group Stations should not be confused with Dual-availability Season Tickets which are specially created and priced.
